

SAI Annual Conference Programme
 Technological University of the Shannon, Moylish Park, Limerick.

Friday May 13th and Saturday May 14th, 2022.

8.30 - 9.30	Friday May 13th - Registration in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
9.30-11.15	Panel 1 Methodologies of home and Place making	Panel 2 Commodification of Home	Panel 3 Homemaking, risk and displacement	Panel 4 Home in a time of 'climate change'
	a) Catherine Corcoran (TUS) Creating Resilient Towns through Community Planning. b) Maggie O'Neill, (UCC) with, Dee Heddon, Morag Rose, Clare Qualmann, Harry Wilson, Maxwell Ayamba and Henna Askainen. Walking, Belonging and Place-Making c) Ruairi Weiner (MU). Blurring the distinction between the researcher and the researched: doing Collective Memory-Work online in Covid times.	a) Martyn Egan (TCD) The Mystery of Dublin”: Housing and Post-Fordism in XXI Century Ireland. b) Henry Silke (UL) and Brian Hurley (UL). The reconfiguration of the 'home' as a financial commodity in Irish policy discourse. c) Conor Cashman (UCC) Home Ownership, Financialisation, and Bridging the Affordability Gap: The (Re)Framing of Risk and Debt within Irish Housing and Financial Regulatory Policy. d) Aisling Tuite, John Organ & Darren Byrne (All WIT). Thematic area of Economic Policy as Household Management	a) Cathy Jones (TUS) When Prison is your Home: exploring well-being within an Irish Prison in development. b) Jason Quinn & Dr Matt Bowden (TUD). Manufacturing a Desire for Home Security. c) Yuliang Lu (UCD) Domestic violence of queer intimate relationships in China d) Maruta Pranka & Ginta Elksne (University of Latvia). The Idea of Home in Life stories: Latvian Experience	a) Robert Egan (TCD) Rediscovering Ireland: An Exploration of Domestic Tourism during the Covid-19 Pandemic. b) Mike Hynes (NUIG) Virtual Danger: The Growing Environmental Harm from Digitalisation c) Egle Gusciute (UCD) and Fionnuala Murphy (UCD) Who will pay? Irish attitudes towards renewable energy d) Emmet Fox (WIT) Home, Climate Change, and Practices.
11.15 –11.30	Coffee in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre

11.30 - 12.00	Opening Ceremony Millennium Theatre Dr Maura Clancy – Dean of Faculty of Applied Sciences Dr John O’Brien – President of the SAI Dr Lorcan Byrne of TUS and the SAI.
12.00-1.00	Millennium Theatre Keynote One Professor Mary Corcoran
1.00-1.45	Lunch in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
1.45-3.15	Panel 5 Impact of inequalities on Home	Panel 6 Brexit Wounds and Shifting Borders	Panel 7 Quant Study Group Collection data in the post pandemic world	Panel 8 SETU Unemployment Research Centre
	a) Lucia Vazquez Mendoza (DCU). Food Poverty in Ireland and its relationship with Housing Instability b) Caroline Coyle & Delores Crerar. Creating a Sense of Home through Creative Art Mediums within the Digital Communitas Context: A Pandemic Case Study of the work undertaken by Athlone Family Resource Centre. c) El/Ien Reid-Buckley (UL). Home is a Four-Letter Word?: Exploring Bisexual+ Identity Negotiation within Family Homes in Post-Marriage Equality Ireland.	a) Aidan O'Sullivan (BCU). Both sides of the Irish Sea b) Mandy Lee (TCD) “Home is wherever Hongkongers are”: Narratives of emigration and exile by pro-democracy Hongkongers. c) Sarah Carol (UCD) and Lukas Hofheinz. A content analysis of the Friday sermons of the Turkish-Islamic Union for Religious Affairs: The role of belonging to the Turkish homeland	a) Ross McMillian and Micheal Breen (UL) Covid Data b) Mathew Creighton (UCD) & Helen Russel (ESRI) GUI data collection c) Panel Discussion- Chair Carmel Hannan “Online covid surveys, the future of face-to-face interviews, increasing costs of data collection, ethics and social responsibility, and evolving innovative methodologies”.	a) Dr Alizee Delpierre & Dr Didiier Demaziere (both Sciences PO) A critical analysis of EU activation policies for the unemployed b) Patrick Gallagher, Zach Roache, Aisling Tuite & Ray Griffin (All WIT) Between a Rock and a Hard Place: How Activation Workers Negotiate Discretion After COVID-19 c) Panel Discussion Statistical Profiling of the Unemployed an Uneasy Home to European Values

3.15-3.30	Coffee in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
3.30-5.15	Panel 9 Sustainable home, sustainable communities	Panel 10 Conflict, home & nationalism	Panel 11 Finding home	Panel 12 Direct provision
	a) Alexander Stingl (NUIG). Inhabiting, occupying, living, or dwelling in the so-called Bioeconomy: Toward a sociology of sustainability and resilience for human and non-human worlds. b) Name: Cliona Rooney (Atu) & Lisa Moran (WIT) Conceptualising Irish Rural Housing Crisis through the Lens of Histories: Colonialism, Hyper-Commodification and Discourses. c) Maija Krūmiņa (Uni of Latvia). Home and Sense of Belonging in the Life Stories of Latvian Exiles d) Leona Forde (EHU), Mark McGovern (EHU) & Lisa Moran (WIT). Home Away from Home? Exploring Biographies of Home Making and Place Making in Interviews with Refugee Resettlement Support Workers in Merseyside, Lancashire	a) Laura Acosta (Northwestern Uni). The Symbolic Third and Civil War Reoccurrence in Mid-Twentieth Century Colombia. b) Jamie Gorman (MU) 'Rear-guard resistance' revisited: Populism, radical pluralism and inclusive visions of home in Irish anti-fracking movement. c) Maighread Tobin (MU) Membership of the Nation / Citizenship of the State. d) Lorenzo Posocco, (UCD) & Iarfhlaith Watson (UCD). #WeAreIrish: Perspectives and Challenges in Organizing an Inclusive and Multicultural Ireland	a) Katie Liston (Ulster University) & Joe Maguire (Loughborough Uni). 'Home' denotes more than buildings and dwellings. b) Franka Zlatic, (University of Nottingham) Lockdown, locality and dwelling: Migrants' home-making in a COVID-19 world c) Caitríona Ní Laoire (UCC) and Mastoureh Fathi (UCD). Home, bordering and everyday life: young male migrants in Cork city negotiate the structural im/possibilities of home. d) Egle Gusciute (UCD) Ethnic and religious discrimination in the Irish rental housing market	a). Abayomi Ogunsanya (Independent Scholar) Transforming Precarity in Ilé Adúró: Place-/home-making Practices and Performative Strategies of Nigerian Asylum Seekers in Ireland's Direct Provision Centres b) Carmel Hennigan (TUS) The Quest – Stories of Challenges Overcome: A Narrative Identity Study of the Experiences of Immigrants in Direct Provision Arrangements in Ireland c) Katie Sheehan (Paul Partnership) Constructing Home: The case of direct provision d) Daryl Mahon (NUIM) A Systematic Scoping Review of Interventions Delivered by Peers to Support the Resettlement of Refugees and Asylum Seekers
5.15-6.15	Millennium Theatre Keynote Two- Dr Rory Hearne
7.00	Conference Dinner- The Munster Suite of Thomond Park (Next-door to the TUS Campus)

9.00 – 9.30	Saturday May 14th - Registration in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
9.30-11.15	Panel 13 SAI Race and Ethnicity Study Group (Part 1) Critical Race Theory: Interrupting racial structures ‘at home’	Panel 14 TUS Social Science Connections Research Group Chair: Frank Houghton	Panel 15 Welfare	Panel 16 Care Homes
	a) Eburn Joseph - White privilege without white supremacy: The case of Ireland b) Su-Ming Khoo (NUIG) White Skin White Masks? Ireland and decolonial revisions of Sociology on the white side of the global colour line. c) Aoife Titley. CRT and Belonging - focusing on minoritized young people in Ireland d) David Nyaluke. Pan Africanism, BLM and black diaspora/heritage ‘in the middle’ of belonging e) Phil Mullen. Being at home in your own skin - mixed race in ‘residential homes’	a) Lisa O’Rourke Scott (TUS) Who’s home? Research on the experiences of mothers escaping domestic abuse engaging with custody and access issues in the Irish courts. b) Jennifer Moran Stritch (TUS) A Home for Death: Making Space for the Sociology of Death and Grief in Irish Third Level Education c) Geraldine Maughan (TUS) Home is where the “Self” is. d) Sinead McMahon (TUS and Sasha Noonan (TUS). Home is where the heart is!” – Exploring communal values and emotional labour at the heart of professional practitioner motivation.	a) Pilar Luz Rodrigues (WIT). A home away from home: the role of place and place-making among Brazilian migrants in rural Ireland. b) Tom Boland (UCC). The road that never leads home: Jobseeking as permanent pilgrimage in the labour market c) Zach Roche (WIT). Why Don’t You Just Give Up? The Cruel Optimism of Hopeless Debtors d) Francis McGinnity, Elish Kelly, Sarah Curristan & James Laurence (All ESRI). The Migrant Wage Gap in Ireland: Differences across Country of Origin, Gender, and Time	a) Lisa Moran (WIT) & Lorraine Green (EHU). Excavating Care Leavers’ Emotions and Understandings of Home and Belonging in a UK University: A Narrative Biographical Study of Emotion-Bodies among Care Leaver Students. b) Kate Cooley (MTU) and Margaret Linehan (MTU). All Grown Up and No Home to Go To c) Catherine Carty (TUS) What do we have if we don’t have stories? That’s who we are” – Exploring the contested concept of Belonging in Young People’s Residential Care d) Margeret Buckley (UCC) Pathways towards Stable Housing for Parents and Children Exiting Residential Services.
11.15-11.30	Coffee Registration in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
11.30-12.30	Millennium Theatre- Keynote Three – Professor Les Back

12.30 – 1.15	Lunch in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre
1.15 – 2.45	Panel 17 Biographic Narrative and Lifecourse Research Group	Panel 18 Body, spirit & self	Panel 19 SAI Race and Ethnicity Study Group (Part 2) On the “uses” of race and the intersectionality of racialization –: coming up against vulnerabilities ‘at home’	Panel 20 Theorising care and integrity
	a) Lisa Moran (WIT) Introduction: Traversing Time-Space Boundaries and Re-experiencing emotional dynamics of home: reflections on experiences of five researchers. b) Patricia Prieto Blanco (Lancaster University) and Tanja Kovačič (NUIG) Remembered, immediate and aspired home: travelogue through objects c) Elham Amini, (Uni of Liverpool) ‘Spit on your own face’: Gendered Practices at Home d) Gayle Letherby (University of Greenwich and University of Plymouth) In Isolation? Solitude, Loneliness, Network Capital and the (Personal) Importance of Seagulls.	a) Melissa Meyer (UCC) Untethered and Undermined: Capturing the liminal condition of young adults in Ireland and its consequences. b) Laura Moran (TUS) At Home in your Body; Can Trauma Informed Yoga Help to Reduce Emotional Eating? c) Martina Sophia Pallaro (DCU) Coming home to the body: embodiment and culture in the yoga experience	a) Carol Ballantine – white paper and the uses of ‘vulnerability’ b) Amin Sharifi Isaloo - statelessness and the right to have rights c) Bríd Ni Chonail – Antiracism and experiences of policy and professional education d) Niamh Mc Guirk - Anti-racism education in primary schools - disrupting whiteness?	a) Kathleen Lynch (UCD) Care and Politics: Resisting Capitalocentrism: b) Kieran Keohane (UCC) Positive mimesis: good models, good neighbours, and good houses of a New Deal. c) Jonathan G. Heaney (QUB) Soundness & Society: Towards a Sociology of Being Sound
2.45- 3.00	Coffee in the Foyer of the Millennium Theatre

3.00-4.30	Panel 21 Education	Panel 22 Home, disadvantage, and discrimination	Panel 23 Res Publica, Repurposing, and the Public Realm	Panel 24 Body Politics: Gender and sexuality.
	a) Carmel Hannan (UL) School effects and the uptake of Science Subjects” b) Monika da Silva Pedroso (UCD) Minority Languages, Bilingualism and Educational Stratification in Post-Colonial Ireland c) Frances McGinnity, Merike Darmody & Emer Smyth (All ESRI) Post-school expectations and transitions of migrant-origin young people in Ireland	a) Jeffrey Shumba (CDI). “Over the fence:” Perspectives and experiences of the housing crisis in Tallaght. b) Antoinette Jordan, Dr Zeta Dooly, Dr Ray Griffin (WIT). Data in welfare: biopolitics of algorithmic welfare and the (in)dividual c) Caitriona Mc Mahon (TUS) When home feels a million miles away: Multidimensional poverty through a sociological lens	a) Susan Flynn (WIT) The Good Shepherd b) Richard Hayes (WIT) At Home in Waterford: “Home” in Spatial Practice c) Monica O’Mullane (UCC) The Academy as a Home for All? Reflections on the Role of the Athena SWAN Charter in Institutionalising Gender Equality in Irish Higher Education	a) Catherine Conlon, Kate Antosik-Parsons and Eadaoin Butler (All TCD). When Home is Where the Abortion Is. b) Aidan Settman (MU) Pregnant People Who Inject Illicit Drugs: Stigmatization From Emergency Room Nurses In Western North Carolina c) Anna Kennedy (Ulster University). Labour within the home: To be in control of family life is to be a ‘good mother’.
4.30 – 5.30	Millennium Theatre Keynote four- Professor Hellen Russell.
5.30	Conference Closing Dr John O’Brien, President of the SAI.			